SLEUTH DYING: MAN IS RELD. EDISON IS NEARLY Two Arrests Followed Shooting

Louis Marino of 235 East 195th street, who was arrested Friday evening after Detective Van Dam of the Fifth inspecion district had been shot three times on East 105th street, between Second and Third avenues, was held without ball yesterday by Magistrate Krotel in Harsault. Van Dam, who is in the City Hospital on Blackwell's Island, had a relapse yesterday, and last night it was reported that his condition was critical.

The police have no knowledge that Marino shot Van Dam, but Marino admitted in court he was the man whom Van Dam was chasing when another man stepped out of a bleycle repair shop and fired point blank at the detective. Salvatore Milone, one of two brothers who own the bitycle repair shop, had been arrested charged with violating the Sullivan law because a shotgun and revolver were found in the place. He was discharged because the police could not prove that
